UKFCU Cookie Policy

Please review these terms carefully. If you do not agree to these terms, you should not use this site or University of Kentucky Federal Credit Union (UKFCU) products or services. UKFCU would like to offer a clear website with the most relevant content for you. To make this possible, we use technologies that can collect information about you and how you and other visitors use ukfcu.org. With this Cookie Notice, we want to create transparency and give you a complete overview of what the processing of your information includes.

What are Cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that allows the storage of such information. Most browsers are set up to accept cookies, but you can change your settings to have your browser notify you when you receive a new cookie or to refuse to accept cookies. Cookies are an important and necessary part of providing personalized services to our users.

How We Collect Information

UKFCU's use of Cookies may result in the processing of IP addresses which are considered Personal Data, and we therefore recommend that you also read our Privacy Policy which describes our processing of Personal Data and your rights.

Our service uses the following tracking methods: Local log files from our server and Google Analytics. You can opt out of Google Analytics without affecting how you visit our website. For more information on opting out of Google Analytics tracking, visit this Google page. We do not currently support the capability to respond to web browser "do not track" signals.

Information we collect is most often voluntarily provided by you, for example by your creation of an account, registration for events or purchase of products/services, but is sometimes obtained from public or third-party sources, or in some instances through the use of "cookies." Examples of the information collected include the date and time of your visit, the internet protocol address your computer was assigned, and the pages you accessed on our website. We use this information to understand how users interact with our website and to make improvements as deemed appropriate.

Third Party Websites

We may provide links to non-UKFCU websites, including, but not limited to credit bureaus or merchants. If you follow links to websites not controlled by UKFCU, you should review their privacy policies and other terms, as they may be different from those of our site. UKFCU does not guarantee and is not responsible for the privacy or security of these websites, including the accuracy, completeness, reliability, or suitability of their information.

Social Media Sites

UKFCU provides experiences on social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, YouTube, and LinkedIn that enable online sharing and collaboration among users who have registered to use them. Any content you post, such as pictures, information, opinions or any personal information made available to other participants on these social platforms, is subject to the Terms of Use and Privacy Policies of those platforms. Please refer to them to better understand your rights and obligations with regard to such content. In addition, please note that when visiting any official UKFCU social media page, you are also subject to the Terms and Conditions of the University of Kentucky Federal Credit Union Privacy Policy.
